

1916

Concert at Ardclough who braved the storm on Friday congratulate themselves, said a gentleman to the writer, I wish and others of our theorists were present at our teachers can do, and are doing children. ... Perhaps what struck the fact that the main burden of amusement was borne by the children.

s. We had a meeting of sufficient

Ardclough families & their connections to Easter Rising

An evening of recollection, story telling and music: Ardclough GAA Tues March 22 8PM